Moffat Bay: Beta Testing Q & A

Test 1	Team Member: Julie Sakai Beta Tester: Joshua Van Hooser Date Tested: 07/19/25
Question	Beta Tester Response
1. Was it clear how to navigate from page to page?	The website was straightforward and easy to navigate. I liked the Cabin booking page because I like to be able to compare rooms types in one view.
2. How did the colors, images, and layout make you feel?	The website created a cozy and trustworthy feeling, and the natural colors fit the outdoor theme. The layout was neat and not cluttered.
3. Were there any pages that felt confusing or hard to navigate?	Not really. Everything was easy to click through and made sense. I did notice that on the room booking page, I was confused about how a Double Full cabin could sleep for six people.
4. How likely would you book a vacation through the Moffat Bay Lodge site?	The website felt trustworthy so I would book a vacation through this website.
5. What would you change or add?	I would like more information about the amenities for each room including Wi-Fi, kitchen, or balcony.

Test 2	Team Member: Tatiana Tan Beta Tester: Rhea Date Tested: 07/19/25
Question	Beta Tester Response
1. Was it clear how to navigate from page to page?	The website was very clear on how to navigate from one page to another.
2. How did the colors, images, and layout make you feel, and did the design match your expectations of the site?	The color scheme of the website made it feel inviting and homey, which captures the vibes of rental cabins perfectly. Overall, the design was thought out and well put together.
3. Were there any pages that felt confusing or hard to navigate?	No, there were not any pages that were confusing or hard to navigate. In my opinion, someone who is not tech savvy or good with computers would be able to use this website easily.
4. How likely would you book a vacation through the Moffat Bay Lodge site?	It is very likely that I would book a vacation through this website. Nothing seemed out of place, and it looks like a good website to use.
5. What would you change or add?	Videos showcasing attractions would be a nice touch.
